

ABOUT MOVIE

WHO'S THERE ?

The tale about courage and sense of friendship and also about the fact that being with somebody is the best way to be in the world.

Two boys are born in an unknown place, and so they decide to build a house, so that they will not be afraid of the wolf. The fear of the unknown will draw them into the game in which at the beginning they don't have any problems, then they start to rival, and finally they are united by their common, so a little imaginary enemy.
